Prayers and Readings for this Sunday

Collect: Almighty Father, whose will is to restore all things in your beloved Son, the King of all: govern the hearts and minds of those in authority, and bring the families of the nations, divided and torn apart by the ravages of sin, to be subject to his just and gentle rule; who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Daniel 12.1-3 'At that time Michael, the great prince, the protector of your people, shall arise. There shall be a time of anguish, such as has never occurred since nations first came into existence. But at that time your people shall be delivered, everyone who is found written in the book. Many of those who sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt. Those who are wise shall shine like the brightness of the sky, and those who lead many to righteousness, like the stars for ever and ever.

Psalm 16 1 Preserve me, O God * for in thee have I put my trust. 2 O my soul, thou hast said unto the Lord * Thou art my God, my goods are nothing unto thee. 3 All my delight is upon the saints, that are in the earth * and upon such as excel in virtue. 4 But they that run after another god * shall have great trouble. 5 Their drink-offerings of blood will I not offer * neither make mention of their names within my lips. 6 The Lord himself is the portion of mine inheritance, and of my cup * thou shalt maintain my lot. 7 The lot is fallen unto me in a fair ground * yea, I have a goodly heritage. 8 I will thank the Lord for giving me warning * my reins also chasten me in the night-season. 9 I have set God always before me * for he is on my right hand, therefore I shall not fall. 10 Wherefore my heart was glad, and my glory rejoiced * my flesh also shall rest in hope. 11 For why? thou shalt not leave my soul in hell * neither shalt thou suffer thy Holy One to see corruption. 12 Thou shalt shew me the path of life; in thy presence is the fulness of joy * and at thy right hand there is pleasure for evermore.

Hebrews 10.11-14, 19-25 And every priest stands day after day at his service, offering again and again the same sacrifices that can never take away sins. But when Christ had offered for all time a single sacrifice for sins, 'he sat down at the right hand of God', and since then has been waiting 'until his enemies would be made a footstool for his feet.' For by a single offering he has perfected for all time those who are sanctified. Therefore, my friends, since we have confidence to enter the sanctuary by the blood of Jesus, by the new and living way that he opened for us through the curtain (that is, through his flesh), and since we have a great priest over the house of God, let us approach with a true heart in full assurance of faith, with our hearts sprinkled clean from an evil conscience and our bodies washed with pure water. Let us hold fast to the confession of our hope without wavering, for he who has promised is faithful. And let us consider how to provoke one another to love and good deeds, not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day approaching.

Mark 13.1-8 As he came out of the temple, one of his disciples said to him, 'Look, Teacher, what large stones and what large buildings!' Then Jesus asked him, 'Do you see these great buildings? Not one stone will be left here upon another; all will be thrown down.' When he was sitting on the Mount of Olives opposite the temple, Peter, James, John, and Andrew asked him privately, 'Tell us, when will this be, and what will be the sign that all these things are about to be accomplished?' Then Jesus began to say to them, 'Beware that no one leads you astray. Many will come in my name and say, "I am he!" and they will lead many astray. When you hear of wars and rumours of wars, do not be alarmed; this must take place, but the end is still to come. For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom; there will be earthquakes in various places; there will be famines. This is but the beginning of the birth pangs.

Post Communion God of peace, whose Son Jesus Christ proclaimed the kingdom and restored the broken to wholeness of life: look with compassion on the anguish of the world, and by your healing power make whole both people and nations; through our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

A Prayer for this week

Let the door of our heart be always open to you, O Lord, that we may mark your entrance, embrace your presence, hear your voice, seek your strength and hold fast to you for ever. Amen. Paul (Henry) Heath

Notices

Confirmation. If you or someone you know would like to be confirmed, or would like to explore the possibility, please contact Fr Steven.

Choir for Mission Community Advent Carol Service There will be rehearsals on Saturday mornings, 10am to 11.30am, on 20th November at St Andrew's Church, Colyton, plus a rehearsal during the week before in Branscombe, and before the service (at 4.45pm) on the day itself. Please let Fr Steven know if you are interested (rector@holyford.org or 01297 553180). All welcome.

We need people for our Safeguarding team and to replace Angela Sansom as PCC Treasurer and Mission Community Treasurer, as she is stepping down. More details on the Holyford Herald on the website. If you are interested please speak to Fr Steven.

Questions of Life and Faith, at 2pm on the second Thursday of the month, is attracting a mixed group from our local churches. We meet in Colyford Memorial Hall and the next session will be the 9th Dec. A donation of a £1 or £2 is welcome to meet costs, but not essential. The most important thing is to come with questions that matter to you and open them up to share views and insights. All welcome.

Your Prayers this week are asked for

Sunday: For those near the end of their tether
Monday: For those who give generously to the poor
Tuesday: For victims of bullying at school and work
Wednesday: For those not yet vaccinated, especially in the global South
Thursday: For carers at home
Friday: For those who enable resolution of conflict and disagreements
Saturday: For the people of Afghanistan at risk of famine

Please continue to pray for all those who are struggling at this time, especially those ill at home or in hospital. Prayer requests can be sent to us via the office@holyford.org or to Fr Steven.
