

Join us for Holy Week & Easter 2026

Holyford Mission Community

The Parishes of
Colyton with Colyford,
Branscombe, Musbury,
Northleigh and Southleigh

The week leading up to Easter is known as Holy Week. It is designed to be a pilgrimage which starts on Palm Sunday, when we hear about Jesus' entry into Jerusalem on a donkey.

As the week continues, we journey with Jesus from the Last Supper to his death on the Cross, leading to the victory of God's love which triumphed over darkness on Easter Day when we celebrate the joy of the Resurrection.

Welcome to our visiting preacher

The Reverend Tim Hunt

---

We are pleased to welcome The Reverend Tim Hunt as our visiting preacher for Holy Week and Easter. Fr Tim has been Chaplain of Blundell's School, Tiverton, since 2001. For more than twenty years he has been at the heart of that community, leading worship, preaching regularly, preparing pupils for confirmation, and offering pastoral care to students and staff alike. Blundell's is a large and historic school, and its chaplain plays a central part in shaping the spiritual life of the community. Through daily services, major festivals, and the ordinary conversations of school life, Fr Tim has helped generations of young people explore faith thoughtfully and honestly. He brings experience, clarity in preaching, and a pastoral warmth that makes people feel at ease.

Fr Tim will lead us through the most solemn and joyful days of the Christian year. Holy Week invites us to walk the way of Christ from the Upper Room to the Cross and on to the empty tomb. Fr Tim will guide us through these days with care and depth. Come and hear him during Holy Week and at Easter. This is a valuable opportunity to benefit from the ministry of a wise and gracious priest as we gather to celebrate the heart of our Resurrection faith together.
